VOLUNTEER PARTY TIME!

STUART, Florida- (September 10, 2009) The Air Show is inviting all those interested in volunteering for the Visiting Nurse Association Air Show to come enjoy the volunteer party September 24 from 5 -7 at Martin County Airport Maintenance Building 1895 SE Flying Fortress Lane, Stuart. RSVP to Jan Furcron, 772-286-1844 ext 1036 by Monday September 21st.

From its humble beginnings in 1991, the VNA Air Show has grown to become the largest family event on the Treasure Coast, drawing over 50,000 spectators. Planning is underway and volunteers are needed to work the Veteran's Day Weekend event at Witham Air Field in Stuart.

"Volunteers are crucial to a successful Air Show," Donald Crow, VNA Chief Executive Officer, said. "The VNA Air Show is grateful to volunteers who donate their time to ensure a sensational Air Show."

Members of the community interested in volunteering are asked to visit the VNA Air Show website, www.vnaairshow.com to complete the volunteer registration form.

About the VNA:

Established in 1976, the VNA of Florida is a non-profit, community-based healthcare agency offering complete home health services. To aid those in need within our community, the VNA Foundation was created in 1987 to help individuals who otherwise would not be able to afford care. For more information about the VNA, please visit www.vnaflorida.org.
